

Saturday $10K?

Posted by 1193sc - 18 Jul 2013 08:29

Is the rain date for the Saturday $10k race going to be on Sunday July 21st? or has this not been decided, just curious before we make the trek, Thanks

Sorry for the slow answer very busy with race. Super Pro both days and all races will be contested 1/8mile. And the 10 K race will be completed one way or another. Sat is only calling for a spot shower in the afternoon

Correct, S/P will be 1/8 mile on Sunday with the other classes running the 1/4 mile, weather permitting of course.
