

DRAG Meeting Oct 7 - Recap

Posted by Sunny - 08 Oct 2013 11:13

A small but enthusiastic crowd attended the DRAG meeting last night. The most notable items centered around our finances - looks like we will have all the bills paid and still have a little in the bank to start with next year. Thanks to Theo Lewis and crew for food prep at the Brackets, and still returning a bit of $$ to the DRAG account. Jessica Desiato also gets kudos for the fine spirit decorations, while maintaining a close eye on her expenses. There are a few of the shirts left - see Chris Raineri at her trailer on Sunday if you are interested.

The next event, aside from races, will be the banquet. Robin is working on the details now, looking at the week after Thanksgiving. Check the website for details as they are worked out.

Next meeting is scheduled for November 4th.

Questions best answered by Robin, who makes the arrangements. Unofficially, we get around 125 to the banquet. If you have suggestions, Robin is the one to speak with.
